

Quiet Time #9 Mountain Moving Faith

Scriptures: Matthew 17:14-21; Joshua 5:13-6:20

Summary & Lessons:

We have all heard the analogy of having faith as small as a mustard seed before. In fact we probably heard it while we were studying the Bible. Well, whether you've believed it whole-heartedly since, or have slowly begun to doubt if it is true. God stand ready and willing to work miracles through us, if we only have faith. In Matthew, God would have healed the boy through the disciples if they had faith. Think about the story of the walls of Jericho. Faith in God brought the entire wall crashing down to the ground! Your faith in God can accomplish even greater things than this. Do you believe it? How many awesome opportunities have we let pass us by and never even been seen because we lack faith?

That person you were studying with that was struggling could have made it, you could have finally overcome that one sin, and you could win over your family and friends to God if you have mountain-moving faith. Even the smallest amount of faith can produce massive accomplishments! It seems as though that little mustard seed had it all figured out.

Personal Applications:

1. What have I done this week that could not have accomplished on my own, but was a "mountain" moved according to my faith?
2. How do I need to grow and change in my prayer life in order to be able to be used by God?
3. Have I quit laying request before God, because of a lack of faith?
4. Why did Jesus consider the disciples lack of faith "perverse?"

Take it to God:

1. Pray for personal victory today in your evangelism.
2. Thank God for his Word that shows us the powerful things He has already done and strengthens our faith for what He is yet to do.
